

Water Resource Management Policy

Nanya Technology Corporation actively implements the sustainable water management to pursue sustainable development, establishes good interaction with stakeholders and timely shares water resource information.

we commit :

- A. Continuously optimize water resource management by employee training, organizational planning, water saving and response system.
- B. Disclose quantifiable water index, continuously improve water efficiency as main objective.
- C. Aim to enhance water discharge water quality, improve water treatment system to reduce discharged water impact of river basin.
- D. Maintain the health of critical water-related areas by environmental education and continuous monitoring.
- E. Establish good sanitation environment and drinking water quality system to reduce the occurrence of infectious diseases.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ren-Du-Jee", written over a horizontal line.

President